

SECOND BAHĀ'Ī ETHICS AND METHODOLOGY SEMINAR

CAMBRIDGE

15-16 SEPTEMBER 1979

Provisional Programme

Saturday 15th.

1. Morning Session: 'Methodological Problems in Christian Scholarship'
Steven Lambdon
Discussion on the relevance of the foregoing to Bahā'ī scholarship.
2. Afternoon Session: 'Methodological Agnosticism and Phenomenology'
Robert Parry
Discussion on the relevance of the foregoing to Bahā'ī scholarship

Sunday 16th.

3. Morning Session: 'Towards a Baha'i Methodology?'
Moojan Momen and Denis MacEoin
Discussion.
4. Afternoon Session: 'The Response of the Research Department to the First Seminar Report'
Peter Smith
Discussion.

General discussion; progress reports; Baha'i Studies Association; reviewing; future seminars.

---

Bahā'ī Studies Seminar, Cambridge 15-16 September 1979

( ) I plan to attend the seminar

( ) I shall require a copy of the seminar report, but cannot attend

Registration fee (includes report): £1.50 to be forwarded to

Dr. Moojan Momen

58 Birdwood Road, Cambridge, England

Participants should contact the above address on arrival (Tel.44205)

The registration fee applies equally to those requiring the report only.

Those requiring accommodation should notify Dr. Momen of this.