- Wilfred and Elizabeth Gibson [= Elizabeth (Gibson) Cheyne]. 111 items. [Monro, Harold, 1879-1932] Poetry Bookshop. London. Samurai Press.

"Comprise letters to Maurice Browne chiefly concerning the publication by the Samurai Press of their writings, particularly her books By many streams and From the shadow, and his The Stonefolds, On the threshold, and The web of life. From 1909 the letters are only from W. W. Gibson and deal with his writings; the promotion, publication, and performances of his work; and Browne's artistic criticism and friendship. Two letters concern Harold Monro and the Poetry Bookshop, one is written in the margin of a letter from William Faversham, and several are addressed to Arthur K. Sabin. Also included are manuscripts and proof sheets for 3 works by him and 3 by her." Library Cat. Note Browne, Maurice, 1881-1955. British poet and playwright.
